Pahokee holds off water restrictions

By ALMA HENRY
PAHOKEE — The Pahokee City Council unanimously agreed Tuesday night to hold off on its decision to place residents of the city on restricted water usage of any kind.

Council chairman George Rashley said he wanted to wait until Thursday to see if the South Florida Water Management District (WMD) orders a 25 percent reduction for all cities in the district.

Since May 6, all cities in the South Florida district have been asked by the Water Management District to ask its citizens to voluntarily cut back water usage by 10 percent.

At its last meeting, the Council asked Mayor Norma Norman to write a letter to South Florida Water Management District asking that Pahokee be exempted from the water restrictions because the city uses just a small amount of water compared to other cities in the district.

The South Florida Water Management District is asking people to follow recommended water-saving steps, such as not washing cars and restricting lawn watering to alternate days — odd-numbered homes on odd days and even-numbered homes on even days.

The Council agreed to address the possibility of imposing mandatory cut-backs Thursday, May 14 at 5:30 p.m., when the Council continues its meeting.

In other business before the Council:

- Jim Usher, a citizen of Pahokee and John Hooker, president of the Association for Retarded Citizens Board of Directors addressed the Council in behalf of the association.

Hooker asked the Council to give the local agency approximately $2,000 out of its Federal Revenue Sharing funds.

Hooker said the cities of South Bay and Belle Glade had donated funds to the program and a large percentage of the students enrolled in ARC programs were from Pahokee.

City Clerk Betty McCoy said the city had in the past budgeted funds for ARC.

The Council agreed to budget $1,000 for the S. Department of Commerce $2,300. Mrs. McCoy said back in 1977 the city received an EDA grant for approximately $1 million and $2,300 of the work paid for during the water tower building did not fall under the guidelines of the EDA grant.

• Agreed to have the City engineer, Jim Sloane contact the Corp of Engineers to see if the city could build bathroom facilities near the city's docking facilities.

Dock master William Joiner asked the Council to consider using the $50,000 recreation grant from the county to build bathrooms atop the dike.

Mayor Norman said that was his first suggestion and if the city could build bathrooms he would recommend the city use the funds for that purpose.

The Council also instructed Sloane to ask the county if the grant could be used to pave the parking area of the dock facilities also.

Sloane said he sees no reason why the bathrooms or the paving would not be approved by the county.

• As long as the monies are used to benefit state boaters and not discriminate against non-residents of Pahokee, the projects should be approved," said Sloane.

• Agreed to send a resolution to Rep. Don Childers opposing a house bill calling for all cities to hold

The city's supply of water was nearly interrupted Thursday night, but by Saturday the new pump was restoring the flow.

Water loss averted in Belle Glade

BELLE GLADE — The City of Belle Glade came within a hair's-breadth last week of having its water supply interrupted before a new pump was installed on the rim canal.

City Manager Rolfe Wagner said the flow to the Sugarcane Growers Cooperative and to Quaker Oats was shut off at 10 p.m. Thursday, May 7, to preserve a dwindling supply for fire and home uses.

Wagner said the decision to cutback on the supply to the city's two biggest industrial users came after the city's water supply dropped sharply and the city became dependent on two emergency pumps in the

Belle Glade takes emergency step

Belle Glade — Belle Glade City Commissioners enacted an emergency ordinance Monday night, May 11, to deal with South Florida's crucial water shortage.

Jack Maloy, executive director of the South Florida Water Management District, declared a water shortage emergency May 6, affecting municipalities throughout a nine-county area, including Palm Beach County.

Under Belle Glade's new ordinance, the use of water for irrigating shrubbery, trees, lawns, gardens, and ground covers is restricted to 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. Persons living at odd numbered street addresses will be allowed to irrigate their lawns on odd-numbered days. Persons living on even-numbered streets will be allowed to irrigate on even-numbered days.

No washing of automobiles, trucks, trailers, mobile homes, campers, boats or railroad cars is allowed except at businesses established for that purpose.

Sidewalk, driveway, building and industrial equipment washing is also banned.

The filling and operation of ornamental fountains, swimming pools, and wading pools lacking a recirculation system is banned. Monday night, the fountain at city hall was cut off due to the water shortage.

Use of water for dust control is also prohibited.

Under the new ordinance, two primary means of enforcement are provided: 1. Citation by the Belle Glade Police Department, and 2. Cutoff of the city water supply.

The city manager is empowered to make exceptions to the ordinance when in his judgement the public health and safety is jeopardized.

When the South Florida Water Management District declares that the area-wide emergency is over, the city's ordinance will automatically be repealed.

Commissioner Dorothy Walker was the only commissioner to oppose the emergency water ordinance. Ms. Walker said that while she realizes that the city faces a water shortage problem, she is concerned about the enforcement section of the ordinance. Persons who have had no previous encounters with the law could be cited for washing their car, she said, asking that alternatives be

4th set of Census figures received

BELLE GLADE — City Planning Director Joe Fay said Tuesday, May 12, that the City of Belle Glade had received the fourth set of figures for the city's contested population count.

The latest figures show that Belle Glade has 16,535 residents. The preliminary Census figures released July 25, 1980, showed that the city had 11,470 residents. Figures published Sept. 5, 1980, increased that total to 13,237. On Dec. 16, 1980, the figures jumped to 14,480.

Fay has always contended that the figures showed now at least 17,000 residents. In 1970, the city's population was 15,949.

The latest figures indicate that 8,751 of the city's residents are black, 6,633 are white, 3,075 are Spanish, 35 are American Indian, Eskimo or Aleutian, 19 are Asian or Pacific Islanders, and 1,097 fall into the "other" category.

Housing figures contained in the report show an up and down trend. The July 25 figures showed 5,778 housing units, increasing to 6,016 August 5, decreasing to 6,012 Dec. 16, and increasing to 6,038 May RAIN fell on the Glades area Thursday, May 7, temporarily interrupting the drought which led to the declaration of a water shortage emergency. Despite the rain, the level of Lake Okeechobee continued dropping and more stringent conservation measures were invoked in Belle Glades Monday.

Briefly

Mrs. Hand appointed

TALLAHASSEE — Governor Bob Graham April 30 announced the appointment of Mrs. Frances R. Hand to the Palm Beach Junior College Board of Trustees.

Mrs. Hand a resident of Belle Glade, has served the Board of Trustees since June 1973. She holds an Associate of Arts degree from Palm Beach Community College. Her term expires May 31, 1985.

Plans began coming together last week for the Glades Area American Red Cross Centennial Celebration Barbecue, and the Belle Glade and South Bay Fire Departments are preparing for war.

The two departments, along with possibly Pahokee and Canal Point's brigades, will battle each other in "Firematics," a series of events in a contest during the May 24 festivities at Belle Glade Marina.

"I'm out for blood myself," Bob Sears, Belle Glade fireman joked at the Red Cross Celebration Committee's regular Thursday night meeting May 7.

"You mean we can't bring out guns?" Doug Manger, South Bay Fire chief quipped in reply. The firemen's contest will begin with a bucket brigade, where teams of five men will fill an elevated drum with water, passing buckets up a ladder.

After that, the teams will go through an obstacle course, a bunker coat race and water battle.

Pahokee and Canal Point's firemen have not indicated whether or not they will participate, but Sears and Manger said they were attempting to contact them, along with the Clewiston and Okeechobee Fire Departments.

Firematics would start at 4 p.m., with a 3 p.m. Sunshine Watersports ski show preceding.

The barbecue will be under way at 12:30 p.m., with serving continuing until 4:30. Other scheduled events included a 1 p.m. hand gliding performance by Florida Free Flight of Ft. Lauderdale; music by Pahokee's Skip and Debbie at 1:45; and a Slim's Fish Camp fishing tournament that will finish up about 2:30 with a weigh in and trophy presentation. The tourney will begin at first safe light.

Door prizes will be drawn throughout the day, along with the presentation of the Travelling Trophy.

Congressman Dan Mica will be on hand as the principal speaker for the Tory Island shindig, which is part of the Red Cross fund-raising efforts in South Florida. Mica will speak following a Belle rim canal.

 Blowing in from the south had temporarily dropped the lake level around the city's primary pumps by one foot, leaving the raw water intakes high and dry above the lake.

Meanwhile, beginning Tuesday, city crews began working long into the night, removing a pump from Winnie's Cove, where it had become essentially useless due to low lake levels, and re-installing it at the city's pump station on the Rim Canal.

Director of Public Works Ron Sigmon called the pump project one of the most difficult the city has ever undertaken in-house.

Following a design prepared by Jack Dillard of Briley Wild Engineering, city crews installed a 12 inch water main to Billy Roger's barge on the Rim Canal. The pump from Winnie's Cove was installed on top of the pipe.

Whether the lake rises or falls, the intake level of the pump will remain constant as it is mounted on the barge. One of the main concerns had been the flexibility of the 12 inch main. But that concern was put to rest Thursday night when the rim canal level dropped one foot and the pipe stood the test.

City officials had hoped to have the pump operational by noon Friday, but the fly in the ointment proved to be the requirement for a new power line to the barge site. Florida Power and Light Corp. completed installation of the new line about 4 p.m.

A new problem arose shortly thereafter when the pump was turned on. Within 15 seconds, the pump's bearings burned out. The bearing problem cost the city almost 24 hours. It wasn't until about 4 p.m. Saturday that the pump could be repaired and put back into action, sending 5.2 million gallons per day of raw water to the city's treatment plant.

By midnight Saturday, about one million gallons of water were going to the city's big industrial users. That amount had increased to 2.3 million gallons Monday.

City Manager Wagner said the Sugar Cooperative and Quaker Oats once again had all of the water they could use Monday night at the city's regular commission meeting.

All city water storage facilities were reported full by Monday night.

Additional help is on the way in the form of a new pump to be mounted somewhere in the Rim Canal area. Commissioners approved purchase of the new pump at a special meeting two weeks ago.

At Monday night's regular meeting, Wagner praised city crews for the long hours devoted to maintaining the city's water source. He called their efforts "extraordinary" and said that great cooperation was shown by all departments in solving the problem. He also thanked the business community for their understanding and cooperation during the crisis.

TALLAHASSEE — The Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission today re-endorsed an emergency rule, passed last week, which temporarily closes the taking of game fish from Lake Okechobee by commercial means. During their regular meeting, the Commissioners heard a status report from the Division of Fisheries supporting the continued ban. The ban prohibits commercial harvest of game fish by trawl, haul seine and wire trap. In addition, the rule provides that fish tagged prior to May 3

In other business Monday, commissioners: "Cancelled their May 25 meeting, which would have fallen on Memorial Day.

"Approved an ordinance allowing commercial advertising signs to be posted in agricultural zones."

"Named Chester Mullis to the Municipal Code Enforcement Board. Mullis was named to complete Jim Conway's term on the board which expires Oct. 1. Mullis will represent real estate interests on the board. Conway is leaving the Glades area."

"Heard a request from Robert Cox of the Belle Glade Jaycees for lease of the building at the Little League ball park."

Commissioners took no action on the request, pending clarification of the Police Benevolent Association plans for the park.

"Agreed to protest Senate Bill 479, which is now being considered in Tallahassee. The bill would mandate that county and municipal elections be held on the same day."

Commissioners believe that in Palm Beach County, which has 97 cities, the bill would create confusion.

"Approved May 10-16 as Municipal Clerk's Week in recognition of service rendered by City Clerk June H. Boglioli."

Aluminum recycling center set to open Monday

BELLE GLADE — Starting Monday, the Association for Retarded Citizens Glades Area will be in the aluminum recycling business.

The local association held its ribbon cutting ceremony for the operation Monday, May 11, which will be next to the Winn Dixie Food Store, located at West Canal North and Northwest Fourth Street.

Tricia Blash, Glades ARC executive director said the project has been in the making for the past several months and the site for the project was provided to the local agency by local resident Kenneth Lutz.

Mrs. Blash said the recycling center will be opened six days a week, Monday through Saturday, and the amount paid per pound for aluminum will be competitive with other aluminum recycling operations.

The site will be opened from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Helping the Glades ARC open the recycling center were Jack Chappell, site director of operations for National Brands of Miami and Bonnie Bartlett, field representatives for Containers Recovery Corp. of St. Louis.

Mrs. Blash said National Brands provided Glades ARC with $15,000 worth of equipment to start the operation.

"We financed the project to help ARC start the project and we're hoping down the road the ARC will make some money," said Chappell.

The aluminum recycling center consists of a can flattener, scale, and an electrical device which will separate foreign objects from the aluminum, which will be stored in a large trailer.

Chappell said the trailer can hold between 15,000 and 17,000 pounds of aluminum and once the trailer is filled it will be taken to a shredding plant in Cocoa Beach and then to a National Brands facility in Jacksonville for reprocessing.

Mrs. Blash said the Glades ARC will be glad to have people donate the aluminum if they want, and volunteers are needed to assist the students with the operation.

Rev. Evans presented the students with their first batch of aluminum cans when he collected three bags of cans from local roadways.

Mrs. Blash said ARC will gain an additional six cents per pound when it sells the aluminum to National Brands and the profit will enable Glades ARC to pay a competitive price and to pay the students a wage for their work.

Quaker Oats reports quarter results

CHICAGO — The Quaker Oats Company reported earnings per share of $1.37 for the third quarter ended March 31, compared to $1.35 for the same period last year.

Operating income for the third quarter was $69.4 million, up 17 percent over the $59.1 million of last year. Third quarter sales increased from $626.5 million last year to $645.9 million.

Since 1966, Quaker Oats has operated a chemical plant on Airport Road in Belle Glade which produces furfural from bagasse. The chemical is used in the foundry industry.

Quaker Oats employs about 120 persons in the Glades area, said Terry Lino, Quaker Oats manager of employee and community relations.

For nine months, earnings per share were $3.49, compared to $3.54 last year. Results for this year include a charge of seven cents per share from the sale of the Biscuit group of the Burry Division recorded in the first quarter. Operating income for the nine month period was $180.7 million, compared to $160.6 million a year ago, an increase of 13 percent. Nine-month sales increased from $1.82 billion last year to $1.98 billion.

"We are pleased with the strong operating income performance of the company as a whole for both the recent quarter and the nine months," said Robert D. Stuart, chairman and chief executive officer. "We are particularly encouraged by the consistent earnings progress of our U.S. and International Grocery Products businesses, as well as the Chemicals Division."

"During the third quarter, our favorable operating income trends enabled the Company at the net income level to offset higher interest costs and an unfavorable swing in foreign exchange compared to the prior year."

The Chemicals Division continued its strong operating income performance with third quarter operating income increasing sharply from $3.8 million to $5.3 million.

HOW I SEE IT

ARC students off to a good start

With President Ronald Reagan and Washington lawmakers busy making more cuts to the federal budget, Association for Retarded Citizens-Glades area adult students are off to a good start with their own money business.

The ARC vocational classes for the past couple of months have been busy teaching the students marketable skills and the students have taken on a variety of small jobs to supplement their income.

Come Monday, the students will go into what is hoped to be an even bigger money making project.

The Association held its ribbon cutting ceremony Monday for its new aluminum recycling operation scheduled to open Monday, May 18 next to the Winn Dixie Food Store on West Canal Streets.

The students will use the operation to supplement their own income and in some instances will be the students only income, making them taxpayers instead of tax burdens.

The students are excited and so are the ARC board of directors and the executive director, Tricia Blash.

Why not earn some extra money and save aluminum cans and at the same time give employment to some Glades special citizens.

When given help, we give hope...

Speaking of things to do in the Glades, The El Dorado Civic Center is bringing to the Glades one of South Florida most noted and respected black personalities...Mr. C.T. Taylor, host of the highly acclaimed "Black Is" television program aired weekly out of Miami.

Taylor will be speaking at the Fourth Annual Sickle Cell Anemia Banquet at the Lakeside Country Club on Saturday, May 30.

This is program you will not want to miss. See you and C.T. Taylor there...

And as the Christian Day School Crusaders travel to Orlando for the State baseball championship, I wish them lots of luck and a safe trip.

Why not three state championship teams in the Glades?

The Glades Day School football team, the Pahokee High School track team and the Crusaders baseball team.

I have just had the best weekend that I have had in a long time at Busch Gardens.

It was my first trip to Busch Gardens. All I could think about on the way up there was the free beer Ray told me about. I have been to Disney World a few times and enjoyed that too, but at Disney World they do not give away free beer.

On the way, we crossed the Sunshine Skyway or the "broken bridge" as I call it. Basically, all you see is the bridge and the water far below.

When we first reached the bridge I looked over at Carol to see her slowly sliding down into her seat. By the time we reached the very top of the bridge, Ray was pointing and saying to me, "Look over there, that is where the car was dangling halfway over the edge."

"Right there is where the bus took the plunge." By this time Carol was murmuring to herself, "Don't look down," and "Shut up Ray!"

Our day at Busch Gardens was really nice. I enjoyed seeing the snake charmer wearing the snake on her head. The animals were so friendly in the petting area that three tried to eat my camera and unveiling of Tyler's "The Seminoles" paintings, which were placed in the bank last week. The project, consisting of six works, is the largest Tyler has ever completed.

One vote makes a difference

With voter apathy increasing in every city, state and national election and more and more eligible voters taking the attitude "My one vote will not make a difference", what happened in the Pahokee city election last week becomes more likely.

In the Group I race for the city council seat only three votes separated the winner from the loser.

With that attitude "My one vote will not make a difference" there's a real possibility that one vote or two votes did make the difference.

In sorting out the Vot-a-Matic cards for tabulation one envelope and possibly two was found carrying two cards in each.

There's a real possibility some persons voted twice or in the hussle and bussle of things when the voting cards were mutilated the mutilated cards were not given to the election clerk.

So there leaves a question, could the race have been decided by only one vote instead of the three?

If so, the attitude, "My one vote will not make a difference" has no place in Pahokee or at any other election.

Next time you get a chance to vote...vote. Voting is a right and a privilege.

A good man...

Instinctively, I liked Sidney Colvin. I knew that he was a generous, and hardworking man, with a heart as big as he was wide.

He had rough, calloused hands and sunburned skin that came with the hard work on the farm.

Sidney once lived in Pahokee and later came to the Clewiston area. I feel secure in saying that everyone who met him came away with the same warm, comfortable feeling.

He was one of the few men who ever served as a Girl Scout leader. He did it because he loved kids and wanted to be close to his two daughters who were involved in the program.

When they were in kindergarten last year, my daughter, Christine, struck up a friendship with his daughter, Audrey, that continued after school hours. They would call each other on the telephone and talk like little ladies for 10 or 15 minutes.

It gave us a lot of pleasure to see the little old ladies carrying on their serious discussions.

Les Henderson recruited Sidney into the Jaycees several years ago. It was surely one of the best moves the Jaycees ever made.

Sidney went on to win several Jaycee speaking awards and to be elected president of the Jaycees. It wasn't individual glory that Sidney was after, however, it was service to others.

Given any project to benefit the handicapped or those in trouble, you could find Sidney leading the way with help.

Whether it be stoking the fires at a barbecue for a fund raising event or planning a float for a parade, Sidney would be in there giving his all, because he believed in the good that would come from the project.

To the end, he wanted to help others and to help his community.

The end for Sidney Colvin came May 1, following three weeks in a coma. Sidney was only 44. He leaves behind a wife, two daughter, three sons, his father, and two brothers.

We feel richer for having known Sidney, though our sense of loss is great.

Chamber seeks way to keep dollars home

It is an accepted fact that Belle Glade loses a great deal of retail trade because of consumers who rush out to West Palm Beach without thinking about shopping in their own community first.

If we are true to ourselves, we'll all realize that we are all guilty of "Going To The Coast" syndrome. And if the merchants in the town are honest with themselves, they'll realize that they make the Glades customer aware of what they have to offer, to make him aware that he doesn't have to go to the coast to get the goods and services he wants.

With a few exotic exceptions, everything you could ever want or need is available in the Glades. But for years, it seems that no one has ever come up with an effective way to get that message across Belle Glades consumers. Now, however, it appears that the Chamber of Commerce is attempting to search for the answers to this marketing dilemma.

At this month's Chamber meeting, held at noon today, the group will discuss the possible establishment of a retail merchants committee or association. This committee, according to Chamber Secretary Jewel Crane, will explore and institute programs and promotions that will generate interest and dollars for local businesses.

The idea for a committee of this type has been kicked around recent Chamber meetings and the committee is still in its format stage. The Chamber is eagerly seeking input and participation from community leaders on this. Crane said it seems like the crucial element missing from past retail efforts like this one is coordinated business participation.

Well, businesspersons of Belle Glade, here is your chance! The Chamber of Commerce is establishing a program that could help our town immensely. But it can succeed only if you actively support it. A Retail Merchants Association, run effectively, can revitalize this town. And, like President Reagan's supporters say about his economic programs, it's sure worth a try. If you want more information about the plan, retail merchants, contact Mrs. Crane at the Chamber of Commerce office. The phone number is 996-2745.

I've seen retail associations work wonders in other communities. It could work here too, and I wish the Chamber wall on the venture. It's an idea that's long overdue for Belle Glade.

Armas, a standout basketball and baseball player for the Crusaders, also won the Most Valuable Player Award in varsity basketball. Davis took Most Valuable Player honors in girls' varsity basketball and volleyball and Anderson was Most Valuable Softball and Volleyball Player.

"All the athletes here tonight deserve to be 'Athletes of the Year,'" Kathy McReynolds, volleyball, softball and girls' basketball coach said. "They have all worked so hard and have put up with us coaches so well."

In football, Alex Morales, quarterback, took Most Valuable Player honors, while Scotty McCroan took Most Valuable Player honors in tennis.

No specific baseball honors were given because Coach Gus Harman wanted to hold off until the state championship was completed this week-end before deciding the final winners. The baseball did get a standing ovation from the crowd of about 400 when they walked to the podium to receive achievement certificates.

"All the way to state!" was the audience's chant as the boys returned to their seats.

Other football awards given were:

- Most Improved Player, Cary McKee.
- Best Defensive Player, Thomas Fredrick.
- Best Offensive Player, Alex Morales.

Coach's Award, Robert Echols.

Some Christian Day athletic observers have pointed to 1980-81 as the Crusaders' best sports year ever, with above or near 500 records being posted by nearly every department.

The baseball team is in the state tournament. The volleyball team, with an 11-5 record, won its District and was second in the Regional. This was an improvement over a respectable District runner-up place in 1979-80.

The football team had its best year ever, with a 4-5 state, and the boys basketball team had its finest season, going 16-8

Crusaders head for state baseball playoffs in Orlando

By JIM JONES

The Christian Day School Crusader baseball team plays defending state champion Miami Loyola Thursday, May 14, at 1 p.m. in the first round of the Class 1A state playoffs at Dover Shores Field in Orlando.

Crusader Coach Gus Harman brings a 23-3 record against Miami, which has lost once in 26 games this year.

The winner of the Christian Day-Miami Loyola game will play the winner of the Orlando Lutheran-Tallahassee Monticello game Friday, May 15, at 3:30 p.m. for the state championship.

Christian Day qualified for the playoffs by beating St. Petersburg Shorecrest 5-4 in a come-from-behind effort Thursday, May 7, for the sectional championship.

William Cruz picked up his 15th win in 18 games by throwing a four hitter. "They were some of the best hitters we've faced this year," said Cruz, who in 100% innings has struck out 139 batters this year, while walking only 15, and compiling an earned run average of 0.98.

Christian Day's leading hitter, Jesus Armas, agreed with Cruz's assessment of Shorecrest hitting: "They were definitely the best hitting team that we have faced this year. But they couldn't handle the pressure. Our fans helped us out."

Gus Harman saw it this way: "The key for us was fighting back. We showed a lot of guts and determination to stay in the game."

After trailing all game, Christian Day finally pulled ahead in the sixth inning 5-4 with a three run rally.

Christian Day loaded the bases on a single by William Cruz, a walk by Luis Garcia and a bunt single by James Barnwell. Tavy Garcia scored Cruz with a blast to third base. Christian Day tied the game and pulled ahead when number nine batter Scott Henderson, the designated hitter, hit a ball between third base and shortstop. Sloppy fielding by Shorecrest allowed Tony DuBois (running for Barnwell) and Juan Armas to score.

Christian Day scored its first run in the first inning on Alex Morales' sacrifice fly, scoring Jesus Armas. The Crusaders left base runners stranded in the second and third innings without scoring anyone, but in the fourth inning Luis Garcia sent William Cruz home on an RBI single.

It was the fifth inning that Harman called the turning point of the game. At that time, the Crusaders were trailing 3-2. Shorecrest scored one run, by Tavy Garcia's strong throw to catcher Juan Armas at the plate cut down a potential fifth run to keep St. Petersburg within range.

Despite trailing 4-2 going into the bottom of the sixth inning, Harman said he didn't feel any anxiety. "Our pitching defense did a good job: three up and three down."

In the top of the seventh inning, St. Petersburg had one last chance to win the game, but Cruz got the first two batters out on pop ups, walked the pitcher, and struck out Norm Perry to end the game.

"Bedlam broke loose," Harman says of the post-game celebration. Spectators, players and coaches had tears of happiness in their eyes.

"I remember when we used to get beat 24-1 in five innings," said Jesus Armas, one of only two senior on this year's team.

The Crusader Caravan leave Christian Day School at 8:30 a.m. Thursday for Orlando. Directions to the game are available at the school office and in the church office.

Joye Burroughs goes to FSU on basketball scholarship

JOYE BURROUGHS

Glades Central High School girls basketball standout Joye Burroughs signed a letter of intent and four-year athletic scholarship with Florida State University Tuesday.

Burroughs, a graduate senior, made the FSU choice after considering one other college (Carson-Newman in Jefferson City, Tenn.) and receiving offers from several (including the University of Florida and University of Tennessee).

The 5'8" lady Raider point guard decided on FSU after going there for a tryout late last month. She plans to major in Physical Education, and has aspirations to play pro ball or go to the 1984 Olympics.

Saying she first recognized her basketball gifts as a sophomore, Burroughs accumulated many sporting honors in her four-year Glades Central career. Named Palm Beach Post Player of the Year in girls basketball for the last three years, Burroughs is also a member of Who's Who in High School Basketball, 1981. She is also a member of the 1981 North-South Florida Association of Coaches All-star Team.

She averaged about 20 points a game throughout her high school career, and ten assists a game in 1980-81. Her highest per game point total was 34, set in her sophomore year. Burroughs' grade point average is 2.8.

Raider girls are 3rd at state

WINTER PARK—With 100 teams participating in the Class AAA Girls Track Championship state meet at Showalter Field Friday, May 8, Coach Jay Seider, track coach for the Lady Raiders said he feels the Raiders are far above the crowd although they failed to win the championship.

Titusville for the second consecutive year won the meet with 32 points. The Raiders placed third in the meet, and senior Sheila Nix placed first in the shot put, smashing the state record by three feet, with a put of 47'-2 1/4".

"Sheila's record is the second best in the state of Florida, out of all the classes of schools," said Seider. Last year the Lady Raiders finished third behind Titusville and Ocala Vanguard who relied heavily on its relay teams and depth in the field events.

Glenda Stewart who has gained valuable points for the Raiders all season placed second in the discus and Barbara Bostic placed third in the 110 low hurdles.

Going into the meet, Seider had expressed hope in the Lady Raiders 440 relay team finishing right up top and battling Titusville for the top honor.

However the Raiders came in sixth in the 440 relay. Runners were Barbara Bostic, Dawn Missam, Sophia Dukes and Carmen Crawford.

Crawford also placed sixth in the 100 and 220 dash.

Raider track boys place 2nd at state

WINTER PARK—When the Class 3A Track Championship drama unfolded Friday night at Showalter Field in Winter Park, the Glades Central Raiders found themselves just shy of the Class 3A track championship.

The Raiders finished second in the competition after seeing their hopes for a Class AAA championship fade when Palatka won the final event, the pole vault to win the championship for the second consecutive year.

Willie McDonald, the Raiders coach who watched his team manhandled teams in the district and regional competition, said Palatka and the Raiders were tied going into the final event.

McDonald said he is proud of his team and their accomplishments. Glades Central had a stunning, record-equalling 42.1 in the 440 relay, to highlight. Raider scoring in nine events.

Florida State University bound, Jessie Hester anchored the 440 relay. Teaming up with Hester were Arthur Monroe, Ray McDonald and Alco Hill.

McDonald said the Raiders also broke the state mile medley relay record with their best time of the year 3:32.0 in a second place finish.

Team members were Arthur Monroe, Randy Rukledge, Theodis Paulk and Adam Ford.

Friday's competition was a night for competitive performance although the gusting winds and the coolish, January-type air were not conducive to records.

Others placing for the Raiders were Eddie Lusane with a fourth place time of 14.2 in the 120 high hurdles.

Hester with a fourth in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.0.

IRS recognizes tax assistance volunteers

By BRENDA BUNTING

BELLE GLADE — Employees of Florida Rural Legal Services (FRLS) were recently given certificates of commendation for their efforts to help the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) assist lower income persons in the Glades to file their income tax returns.

According to Paula Wiggins, volunteer income tax assistance (VITA) co-ordinator for the IRS, the FRLS has been outstanding in their efforts to help the community, and file the regular 1040-A forms to be submitted to the IRS.

"Many of these individuals, as well as some students, have benefited from the knowledge of the workers at FRLS," she said. Wiggins was even more profuse in her praise of one particular worker at FRLS, Julia Bemby, who worked after hours and went to the work sites of the migrants to offer her assistance with filing income tax forms.

Bemby personally helped 497 people file their returns for the 1980 fiscal year. "Julia is the most outstanding volunteer in the state as far as I know," said Wiggins.

The VITA program has helped a total of 1081 citizens file their returns at the FRLS office alone compared to 400 last year. Other VITA locations are the Community Action Council in South Bay and the Division of Aging in Pahokee. There is also a location at the Indian River State College.

The VITA volunteers are trained by the IRS to file the short forms for those who need assistance. Wiggins has found the volunteers are of even more assistance than expected in that many of the migrants are filing Income Tax forms for the first time.

Many who have used the program have received more than they would have expected due to the fact that they were under the required $10,000 income bracket and were eligible for the earned income credit.

Wiggins expected many of the same laborers to return next year and expects the program to grow.

Others commended with certificates at FRLS were Sheila Inman, Carmen Canales, and Pearlie Mae Moore.

TAKING IT FROM THE TOP

By REV. DAVID T. EVANS
Everglades Presbyterian Church

Many cities in the United States are divided along racial lines. Some countries are divided along religious lines. Nations in the Middle East and Asia are fighting along their borders. Violence continues to break out and one group blames the other. It is almost a daily occurrence that someone or some group holds others hostage. This is a time for reconciliation or conciliation.

The Apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthians, "God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation."

What does reconciliation to God have to do with reconciliation between people, leaders and countries? If we are not reconciled to God, then we can only have at best an uneasy armistice or truce.

But you say, "Why must I be reconciled to God? I think that my relationship with God is all right. I think everything is going along fine. I am certainly not in rebellion against God, so why must I be reconciled unto Him? Why, I have loved Him since I was a child."

Maybe we are conscious of the fact that we have been in rebellion against God by unholding our pride and our doubt of our relationship to God. Paul gives us the clue we need. It is because of our transgressions that we have alienated ourselves from God. We must realize that God cannot take sin lightly, and our disobedience is our rebellion to God's plan. Perhaps it is because we are conscious that by all of these actions we are in rebellion against God that we let pride, we let doubt, and we let the secular things in our lives — attainment of success and fortune — stand in the way of the love of God.

It may be we are in a situation in which we are totally indifferent to God. That does not mean that we do not know God and have no feeling about God as Creator, but rather that God is something out there in the atmosphere that we don't or can't understand, because we have had to personal relationship with Him. We may have had no personal encounter with God.

What about the word "reconciliation"? We know that in these times various people get into disagreements, nations get into disputes, and someone comes along and acts as a mediator. The act of reconciliation is an act of love. God is a personal and loving Father, who can not stand the suffering of His children. Yet, as a truly loving Father, God knows that children must be punished so that they may grow. So as sinners, we must pay the price. Yet we cannot, because we are not able. Jesus is the only one who can pay the price. All we can do is to understand the high price God the Father places on our sin.

In this relationship that we have with God, we see that He has sent Jesus to bring us back into His favor,

Hall graduates from law school

Goodwill night at the park

The annual Goodwill Night at the Expos Game, on Thursday, May 21st., has a new twist this year.

In as past years, Bob Sowers, owner of the West Palm Beach club foregoes the ball park admission price for all fans who bring a bag of donated goods for Gulfstream Goodwill Industries. The Goodwill truck is parked inside the ball park at Municipal Stadium on Palm Beach Lake Blvd.

to receive the contributions. Donors entering the stadium pitch their bags of clothing to Goodwill staffers standing in the truck.

This year the Goodwill regulars will be augmented by local sportscasters and writers. Starting at 6:30 p.m., the volunteer "catcher" will be on duty at the Goodwill area to greet fans and cover the infield for Goodwill.

to restore us to the original position we had as His, that we would no longer be in the far county, but have come back in God's love. We remember that in the parable of the Prodigal Son, it was not the father who was causing the difficulty. It was the son himself who had to come to himself before he would realize that God's love was waiting for him all time.

To be reconciled means to be reduced to congruence. Man becomes at one again with God and His plan. Man is brought back into harmony with the will or purpose of God. He who did not know that he had rebelled against God is back in favor with Him — returned to the privileged position as son. To be reconciled is to remove all that which built up the guilt between God and man, so that nothing stands in between.

With our relationship to God restored, we are then able to understand our family, our neighbors, our associates or fellowmen. We must have God's love as a part of us so that we can be a part of His plan or the violence, revolution, rioting and wars will continue.

PRECISION

With the right instruments you can calculate to a degree of infinitesimal that defines human imagination. You can plot, you can plan and come out perfectly every time... you are dealing with things, not people. When people enter the picture, things get lost. Love, hate, hope, happiness, sorrow, jealousy, trust, envy... you can't measure any of those things. Nor can you measure faith, which is perhaps the biggest commodity of all.

You men have figured out almost everything except ourselves. Even the world's psychologists state today that the most delicate of the human equation are quite obscure... except before God; that all which is another good reason for going to church.

7 arrested, 18 tons of marijuana, cocaine seized

Clewiston business man, James Edward Barton, was arrested around 3 p.m. Monday at the Glades Restaurant after undercover activities in a Belle Glade motel room on Friday led law enforcement officers to arrest and charge Barton with conspiracy to traffic in cocaine and marijuana.

Incidents affecting three counties and leading to the arrests were reported by Sheriff Robert Durkis. "We had suspected Barton for years of being involved in illegal drug dealings," Durkis said. "We recently had a lucky break."

Durkis referred to previous events on Friday when an undercover agent, Detective Richard Browning of Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department, purchased 1,000 pounds of marijuana worth $210,000 in a Belle Glade Motel.

Arrested and charged in trafficking in marijuana were Bob Morman, 34, of Clewiston, Sandra Harris, 34, of Clewiston, Roy L. Whiddon, 42, of Moore Haven and Patrick H. Luna, 31, of Moore Haven.

The Hendry County Sheriff's Department and the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department had been actively pursuing the deal for over 2 months when the exchange occurred.

Barton, who owns Barton Electric in Clewiston, was arrested at Glades Restaurant parking lot around 3:15 p.m. Monday by Durkis, State Attorney Investigator Ronnie Lee, and Detective Browning. He was charged in conspiring to traffic in marijuana and cocaine.

The case expanded late Monday afternoon when further arrests were made in Glades County. Earlier, during the undercover purchase in Belle Glade, the dealers indicated to Browning that plenty more drugs were available than the 1,000 pounds they were selling, according to Durkis.

This led Palm Beach County Sheriff's officers to a Glades County ranch where two trailers were seized. Eighteen tons of cocaine and marijuana were seized and two more men were arrested.

Ronnie Williams, 45, was arrested Friday, May 8, at his home in Orlton and charged with trafficking in excess of 1,000 pounds of marijuana. Bond was set at $50,000 and Williams was still in the Glades County jail Tuesday, May 12.

Eddie Hunter, 32, of Orlton, was also arrested that night on the same charges and bond was set at $50,000. Hunter bonded out Monday, May 11, but was arrested again on another charge before he left the jail. The charge was trafficking in excess of 10,000 pounds of marijuana and bond was set at $250,000. Hunter was still in the Glades County jail Tuesday, May 12.

The second charge was in connection with marijuana that was seized by the Glades County Sheriff's Department at Edna Carlton Ranch about 12 miles west of Moore Haven on Highway 78. Hunter is a manager at the ranch.

Barton and the four arrested in Belle Glade were taken to Palm Beach County jail in Belle Glade where bond was originally set at $100,000 for Barton. However, Judge Don Adams of Palm Beach County reduced the amount to $50,000 and Barton is out on bond.

CARD OF THANKS

Henry, I wrote this for you and mean every thing. I love you with all my heart. There is no one in this world that could ever take your place. I love you. For me to love is to commit myself freely and without reservation. I am sincerely interested in your happiness and well being. Whatever your needs are, I will try to fulfill them and bend in my ways depending on the importance of your need.

If you are lonely and need me I will be there. If in that loneliness you need to talk, I will listen.

If you need the strength of a human touch, I will touch you. If you need to be held, I will hold you.

Yours Forever and Always
T. S. McKinzie

CARD OF THANKS

We realized that much time has expired, since March 14th (Our Bike-A-Thon) for raising funds for Florida Foundation of Cystic Fibrosis. However, due to illness, I have not said to all you wonderful people, who supported this effort whole-heartedly — THANK YOU! I pray that I will never live to be an ingrate.

I should like to thank Chief Mathis and his staff for their full support in the safety of our children out of the city limit, and many thanks to Lieutenant Suttler and his officers, who demonstrated a deep sense of love for humanity, as they patrolled our participants from the city limit of Belle Glade to Pahokee and back.

Many thanks to our donors, whose names are too numerous to mention, and our parents who permitted their youngest to participate in our Bike-A-Thon, also our "Top monetary solicitors, Miss Vanessa Johnson, Richard Goodbred and Eric Lewis, who did a fantastic job in making the finance effort most fruitful.

A very special thanks to Glade View Teachers, Linda Norris and Judith Martineau, who have, for two straight years, commuted from their West Palm Beach homes on their rest day — Saturday, with their bikes in Judy's van, in order to support Cystic Fibrosis financial effort. You are two dedicated persons in helping others. The members of the committee, Margaret Poole, Ida Mizell, Irene Clay, Nina Singleton, and Irene Crittenden.

Canal Point a leader in cane development

CANAL POINT -- Sixty-one percent of all sugarcane acreage in Florida for this past harvest season consisted of varieties from the breeding program at Canal Point, according to "Florida's 1980 Sugar Cane Variety Census" compiled by USDA-Science and Education Administration agronomist Barry S. Glaz and research geneticist Jimmy D. Miller.

Also, for the first time Florida sugarcane production for 1980 has surpassed the production of Hawaii, historically the largest domestic producer, by about 100,000 tons.

The first and second highest percentages of all Florida sugarcane acreage planted to principal varieties were CP 63-588 (34.9 percent) and CP 56-59 (9.6 percent).

In 1980, 336,484 acres (136,276 hectares) of sugarcane grown for sugar and seed were slightly more than the acreage for cane grown in 1979, a new high for Florida.

Currently, the presence of sugarcane smut and sugarcane rust in Florida is providing a strong stimulus to growers to include more varieties in their programs.

A new Canal Point variety released in the Fall of 1980, CP 72-1210, has been the most widely-planted variety in the initial year of release of any CP variety on record," says Miller.

CP 72-1210 has adequate resistance in Florida to mosaic virus, leaf scald, eye spot, and very importantly, to smut and rust.

ANN TYLER with one of her "Seminole" paintings in the Bank of Belle Glade.

Seminole paintings unveiled at Bank of Belle Glade

More than 250 persons viewed "The Seminole" in the Bank of Belle Glade May 7, a group of five paintings by Belle Glade artist Ann Tyler, on display at various points in the bank.

The paintings, which include a 9-by-24 foot mural on the bank's eastern wall, are part of the largest project ever completed by Tyler. The works were unveiled last Thursday afternoon in a two-hour open house, at which several bank officials were present.

Tyler said the bank commissioned her to do the paintings more than a year ago, and bank President Wayne Mikell, and other bank officials worked closely with her on the art.

"The Seminole" depicts the early 1900s lives of the Indian tribes in various activities: a hunter by flying egrets; a family by a campfire; a fisherman, a Seminole couple and two children playing in a creek.

No other bank in the Glades has such a rich historical or cultural display, Mikell indicated.

The canvass on which Tyler oil-painted her huge mural is all in one section. She used part of her garage as a studio, knocking out one of her studio walls in the process.

"I'm very satisfied with the work," Tyler said. "I wanted it to be an asset, something good for the town. I believe it is."

Mikell was also beaming about Tyler's accomplishment.

"I think the artwork is beautiful. I'm very pleased to have this fine art in the community. It demonstrates the history of our area and it was a monumental task (of Tyler's) to do it," Mikell said.

Tyler is a renowned local artist that makes Everglades scenic and historical art her specialty. She has had local exhibitions and her paintings are spread around the nation.
